

Leaving the plan

Educational
brochureRollover brochureRequired minimum distribution brochureBeneficiary brochure

The choices participants make when leaving your company's retirement plan can have a significant effect on their financial security in retirement. American Funds materials allow your plan's financial professional to engage with participants as they prepare for retirement. We also offer educational brochures that help employees evaluate their distribution options and outline the choices available to

Easy-to-follow distribution kit

Our distribution kit describes the four options available to employees leaving the plan and includes the forms

